

CANADA LOYAL BUT HAS VOICE OF OWN

Its Minister of Justice Thus Speaks of Differences in Geneva Council.

EMPIRE WILL HOLD

Other Notables Return on the Adriatic, Reporting a Stormy Voyage.

Among passengers who arrived yesterday on the Adriatic of the White Star Line were the Right Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice of Canada; William Barton French and the Very Rev. Michael J. O'Doherty, Archbishop of Manila.

Mr. Doherty is returning to Canada after attending the council of the League of Nations in Geneva. His attention was called to the fact that he and the other members of the Canadian delegation had differed from the British members of the council.

"I have the utmost confidence the empire will hold," he said, but the empire members stand together on a basis of agreement and not on a basis of control. To get the voice of the empire it is necessary to get the voice of all the nations that compose it. There need be no apprehension as to Canada, which is a nation within the empire. The persons who are sent out to represent Canada are responsible only in their expressions to the Canadian people.

"I can remember that we did not agree in several instances with Mr. Balfour in the league council in regard to certain mandates and in regard to the admission of certain countries, but we reserve the right to our expressions of independence when we differ with those sent out from Downing Street."

Returning also on the Adriatic were Major-Gen. Garnet Hughes and Lieut.-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, K. C. B., former Commander in Chief of the Canadian militia. Sir Sam said he was in ill health and that he hardly left his suite during the voyage, which was a stormy one. He said that when he gets back into service as a member of the Canadian Parliament he intends to draft a bill to recompense newspaper men who served within and without the army during the war.

E. C. Grenfell of Morgan, Grenfell & Co., London, came with Mrs. Grenfell to be the guests for a month of J. P. Morgan on a trip South aboard the yacht Corsair. Mrs. H. H. Harjes, wife of the head of the Paris house of Morgan, Harjes & Co., also was on board, accompanied by her son and by her stepdaughter, Miss Hope Harjes. Mrs. Harjes is on her way to Philadelphia to visit a relative who is ill.

Dr. Carl P. Huebscher of Switzerland arrived to go to his post as representative of his country in Canada. He was accompanied by his wife and two children.

William Barton French, who will return again to London next Wednesday, said the news of the freedom of the city of New York being given to Mrs. Muriel MacSwiney was received in London with derision. Many persons, he said, declared that Mayor Hylan "evidently had forgotten the Allies and what they fought for."

The smallest passenger on the ship to attract attention was Tony Marsh, the four-year-old son of Peggy Marsh and the late Henry Field. Miss Marsh is in a hospital suffering from appendicitis, making it necessary for her legal representative to meet the child.

ON MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE.

Caronia Inaugurates First Service Since the War.

The Caronia of the Cunard Line sailed yesterday, inaugurating the first cruise to the Mediterranean since the war, and taking 280 passengers, who will have the opportunity to visit Gibraltar, Madeira, Algiers, Monaco, Naples and Alexandria.

Among the passengers were Dr. J. B. F. Herrschhoff of Chicago, Oliver C. Harriman, J. Borden Harriman and John Harriman of this city; Mrs. Phelps Stokes and Miss Helen Stokes; Judge William Woodard of Albany; Mrs. George C. Taylor, wife of the president of the American Express Company, and her daughter, Miss Ruth Taylor; Miss Louise Wanamaker of Philadelphia; Mrs. Clement L. Despard; Miss Margaret Despard and Col. Harry L. Kincaide.

FALLS FOUR STORIES; DIES.

Bernard Cullen of 1712 Park avenue died yesterday in Harlem Hospital from injuries he suffered earlier in the morning when he fell from a window of his apartment on the fourth floor of the building. The police say that Cullen jumped from the window when a policeman entered the apartment after Cullen had attacked his wife with a knife.

Mrs. Cullen also was removed to the hospital, where she was treated for a cut arm, and then went home. The couple had four children.
